SOMETHING NEW AND VALUABLE!! Bennett's Hyperion or Transcendental Hair Fluid, For arresting the falling off of the Hair, removing Dan-druff, and curring Baidness. THIS preparation is presented to the public with full confidence in the superior virtues it possesses. It is now in use by many persons in this city, who are deriving the most decided benefits from it. It operates by giving life and activity to the minute vessels of the head, it removes dandruff and scurf, which clog up the pores of the scalp, and prevent a healthful and natural circulation of the fluids. It renders the hair soft and siky, without overloading it with grease. It restores faded and grey hair to its original color. It brings out a new growth of hair by its specific action upon the roots of the same, and the minute vessels from which they emanate.

On the heads of infants and children is often found a deposit of scurf, which should always be removed, as it prevents the growth of the hair. The Hyperion is the remedy.

This certainly leaves the question as open as could be desired; and there are many among us who believe that the contingency which we have printed in SMALL CAPITALS has absed a grisen.

We find the following in the Albany Argus of the 26th of June:

GEN. SCOTT'S PROSPECTS, AS SEEN FROM A WHIG view of Gen. Scott's prospects. Premising that they have sought to deceive. his nomination was made in a great meas votes to give, and with little regard to the prefer ence of States whose support is indispensable to

"It will be observed, on reference to the table which we have presented, that the 159 votes given on the last ballot for Gen. Scott, were from 20 different States. From 14 of these States, including the four largest States in the Union, the majority of votes was in favor of Scott, he having received 147 votes from those States. Of these 14 States, six voted for Tental of the States. election, seven for Cass, and one, California, was not in existence. Ten of these fourteen States, by the test of the latest State elections, namely, Maine, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Pennsylva-nia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Virginia, and California, are decidedly democratic, and of course cannot be expected to aid in the election

"Vermont is a whig State, and Rhode Island, New York, and Delaware, although the last general elections in each went in favor of the democratic party, may, perhaps, be fairly set down as doubtful—the parties being so nearly divided that neither party is likely to yield without a vigorous contex, the result of which want described. contest, the result of which must depend in some which may prevail of their respective positions in reference to the compromise question. If, in ad-dition to the five votes of Vermont, we assume in favor of Gen. Scott all the votes of the three above named doubtful States, we obtain in the 14 States which have given us a whig candidate, lossibility, 47 votes in aid of his election. are sorry it is not in our power to say that such an event is probable.

The twelve remaining votes given for General Scott in the convention were from the six following States: Massachusetts, Connecticut, Tennessee, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Missouri. Of these States, which have 49 electoral votes in all, the last three gave their votes for Gen. Cass at the last three gave their votes for Gen. Cass at the last presidential election, and neither of them, we believe, has ever given a whig majority in a gen-eral election on any occasion. Missouri, how-ever, if satisfied with the nomination, might have been relied on with great confidence in the coming election for a whig majority, as we believe Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Tennessee might have been. We must see that have been. We must say, that in support of the present nomination, made in opposition to the expressed sentiment of the whigs of these States, in our opinion a whig majority cannot be relied on in any one of them. But we will suppose it possible, and we add the 40 votes of these four States which participated in the nomination to the foregoing 47 doubtful votes, and we have 87 votes to hope for, not half of which can be relied on.

"In addition to the States above named ther are eleven States whose votes in convention were unanimous against Gen. Scott on the last ballot, and we believe on all the others. These eleven States gave 80 votes against Gen. Scott, and they are entitled to the same number of electors. Six of those States, now entitled to 48 votes, gave their support is the level. their support in the last election to Gen. Taylor, and the five others gave their 32 votes for General Cass. What probability there is that the six States which voted for Gen. Taylor in 1843, but whose delegates have now unanimously voted against Gen. Scott, and all of which, in popular assemblies, have declared their preference to another candidate, will support the whig nomination we leave to others to judge for themselves. Our opinion, founded on the declarations of convenopinion, founded on the declarations of conven-tions and the public journals of those States, is that very little reliance is to be placed, in this election, on support from that quarter. These opinions will have no influence on the result, and e shall be gratified to find them erroneous, if they should prove to be so." Georgia, in consequence of the many incendiary fires that have recently taken place in that city The City Councils have offered a reward of $500 for the arrest of the offenders, and the merchants have offered an additional reward of $1000.

The question was taken at once in the conven. suffrages. Read his letter: quarterly in advance at the Office. All sub- tion on the adoption of the resolution striking

> The convention made a great number of amendments to the constitution-making almost an entire new one, in fact. Changes of a very important character, relating to the basis of representation, the judiciary, &c., &c , which the people never expected, were made. These, and the great length and expense of the session, rendered the convention rather unpopular, and the opposition press seized upon these facts to prejudice the convention and its doings, in the minds of the people, holding the demo-cratic party responsible for the whole. The consequence was that when the amendments were submitted to the people, thus prejudiced against them and their authors, in advance, the pr whole were rejected together. They were acted ers engrossed the minds of the people, and not much more than half the voters of the State voted upon them.

The convention met again in April, 1851, to in favor of acjourning at once, without submitting any further propositions to the people .-But Judge Woodbury and Gen. Pierce strenubers opposed this as an insult to the people; but the majority were prevailed upon to try the

Our readers will remember the furious excitement which sprung up in the whig convention relative to a dispatch forwarded by Raymond, editor of the New York Times, to his paper, stating that a regular bargain had been struck between the northern and southern whigh, by which the Seath was just what was anticipated. In the bustle and excitement of a most fiercely contested election, with the prejudice excited against the convention by the opposition press, but about a third part of the voters acted upon them, and they were again rejected. No man of candor and intelligence will content that this was a deliberate expression of the sentiments of the people of this State upon this summing the name of American Republicans, as I mecessary in the opinion of my two friends. I now hesitate between extending the period of residence before naturalization, and a total repeal of all acts of Congress on the subject—my mind inclines to the latter. Concurring fully in the principles of the Philadelphia movement, I should prefer assuming the name of American Republicans, as I mecessary in the opinion of my two friends.

Something has been said in the papers in reby that portion of the whig press in the free States which advocated the nomination of Scott. It is unitedly opposed, and thereby prevented the first sample of the view opposed, but the state of the two parties for this result. All we have to say upon this point is, that for more than twenty years the federal press and leaders and gentle persuasion; as in families, churches and other occasions of voluntary attendance, after years of discretion leaffer years of discretion le a fair sample of the views expressed by this class of editors and politicians at the North:

calling of a convention for the avowed purpose of expunging these tests from our constitution;

the distribution of the views expressed by this class of expunging these tests from our constitution; We rejoice that the ultra pro-slavery men have for once met their match. In the convention of our opponents they had everything their own way: but not so in this. By this platform, which we certain y do not approve, the fugitive slave law is left an open question, as it ought to be, and both those who epprove of it and those who condemn it stand just unkere they were. We should have preferred, however, to have taken Gen. Scott as we took Gen. Taylor—without any platform at all; but as we have seven good whig propositions, and a cavided ite who will never do what a Frankan may not of right do, and who is the representative and favorite of those who have been approved, and these illiberal and unjust the claim seven do what a frankan may not of right do, and who is the representative and favorite of those who have been approved as and truths, known to be so by the people of this State. We know not and care not what proportion of each party the claims of suffering humanity, surely we ought to be that they favored a convention in 1850 only voted against the amendments, though we have no doubt that two-thirds of the votes against as is certified by the Wonderful Cures it has per-democratic members advocated it.

Such are the simple facts in regard to this matter, and from them the people abroad can judge for themselves what truth there is in the charge against Gen. Pierce, that he opposed the abolition of the religious test. It has not even a shade of truth to rest upon, and its au-QUARTER.—The Boston Daily Advertiser, a well thors will find that, instead of injuring him, it cognized whig paper, and warmly in favor of will react upon them with fearful effect,

> [For the Louisville Democrat.] THE BULL AND THE LOCOMOTIVE.

In a sort of moody madness Roamed he o'er the grassy plain-Tossed his bushy tail and mane. Was he yet the meadow's monarch-Of the pasture still the king? And he raised his head so lordly-Gave his tail a wider swing.

Was he not acknowledged chiefta Of the horned droves of cattle? Was he not the tried and trusted In each bovine field of battle? Was he not the loved and chosen

Of the milch-kine's fairest queen Was he not the admiration Of each bull-calf on the green

It was true, and well he knew it; Who his claim would dare dispute Dearly, dearly should he rue it, Be he long or short-horned brute. Who, with breath of smoke and flame, Through the meadows rushing came True, th' intruder's limbs were weighty And he seemed a thing of might; True, he might be very dangerous If he shewed a wish to fight. But he blowed too much and loudly To be willing for a lark, And the bull repeated proudly

"Biting dogs do never bark; "And I swear by fair Europa, When the stranger comes again-Rushing through the verdant pasture, Steaming wild across the plain-I will call my herd to battle, Boldly cross the monster's track-Either we shall be gone cattle,

Or we'll drive him, frighten'd, back!" See! afar the locomotiv Whirling o'er the fragrant mead, And he nears the very meadow Where, beneath the gallant lead Of their menarch true and valiant, Stand the tawny horned crowd;

Nought he heed them, but the bell rings, And he whistles very loud. From his pent up breast escaping, Shrieked the steam-a dismal cough; Frightened was the herd of bullocks, And they madly scampered off-All but one, and he, courageous,

Naught but death can force to yield; You shall bear him from the field. There he stands, and waits the coming Of his fae, who draweth near;

Roars he with triumphant fury, Sticks he down his noble frontlet, With considerable vim-Butt! he takes the locomotive, Butt! the locomotive him.

Need I tell who most did suffer?-Need I speak the bullock's fate? Widowed cows, with ceaseless lowing, Will the horrid tale relate In the flushing of the lightning— In the twinkling of a thought—

He, the thief of cow affections, By the cow-catcher was caught. Saw the bullock's fatal stroke-

Saw him fall across the sleepers, Knew his gallant neck was broke; Saw his form in fragments lying— · As he sadly gazed at them, Quoth he, "I admire your courage, But your prudence I condemn."

GEN. SCOTT ON NATIVEISM.

Washington, Nov. 10, 1841. Dear Sir:- I have the honor to acknowledge your letter of the 8th inst., written as you are pleased to add, in behalf of several hundred Native American republicans of Philadelphia. Not confidentially, but not for publication, have already replied to a letter from David M. Stone, Esq., of your city, on the same subject. I will write to you in like manner and in haste. This is the month when the pressure of official business is heaviest with me-leaving scarcely time for sleep or exercise. I must not, howev-

MANSFIELD'S.

J. D. Park, Esq., Cincinnati, Ohio -Dear Sir: It gives "Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla" to that of the numerous and highly respectable persons

My wife has been suffering for the space of nearly five ears with Scrofula and Cancer, which, I think, found its origin in the derangements of the system peculiar to ner sex; while, in the meantime, she was under the care of the most eminent physicians in this section of country, without deriving any material aid from their pre-hysicians, who had seen the medicine used with happy ffect, I obtained of your agents here, Messrs. Rice & McFarland, one bottle of "Dr. Gaysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla," and as my wife found relief from that bottle, I bought some six bottles, which she has taken with the most astonishing benefit, for I am tirely recovered from her illness, and the Scrofula and Cancer are cured sound and well.

Accept my gratitude. Respectfully MICHAEL GOLDMAN.

HARDINSBURG, Ky., March 20, 1851. Mr. John D. Park: We have sold out the six dozen Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla' that you sent us in December last, and we wish you to send us one gross more of it by the first boat. It sells better than any other Sarsaparilla prepara on, and give general satisfaction. It is, in fact, curing some of the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, and is an excellent remedy in all female complaints. Yours, respectfully, CHORUS-Oh, poor General Scott! Oh, poor General Scott! That you're not fit for President It seems you'd quite forgot.

Your loud huzzas are all in vain, Tho' now you heed it not: For none who would their rights maintain Will ever vote for Scott. Oh, poor General Scott, &c. I ween he would, to win the race.

OF EXTRA STRENGTH).

PREPARED from the pure African Ginger, and warranted to be a stronger preparation of the kind than I ranted to be a stronger preparation of the kind than any other in use.

Ginger is acknowledged to be one of the best stimulation the Materia Medica, and is unequaled as a Carminative, Stemache and Tobic, here its great use in Indigestion, Flathlence, A cleivy of the Stomach, Cholera, Ochera Morbus, Diarthena, & c. It effects the ruman system very gratefully, imparting a pleasant and healthful sensation to the stomach and internal organs—

It should have a place in every family, as it is always simple and efficacious in its operation, relieving suddenly and innocently without producing any injurious effects of consequences, which caunot be said of all medicines.

ly and innocentry witnont producing any injurious elects of consequences, which cannot be said of alimedicines.

At this season of the year, when attacks of the Diarr hoa and Bowel Complaint are so prevalent, his article can hardy be too much used. It prevents as well as cures diseases of this kind.

Totic velers and those exposed to changes of climate and water, this reme y is especial viecommended. It counteracts to a great extent the injurious effects of bad water, as well as undue exposure to hear and dampness. A few doses of this medicine will prevent attacks of disease, avert lingering illness and pethaps death. Vuch difference exists in the quality of the root obtained from different parts of the world, some samples containing comparatively but little strength. The Aftican Gineer is tound to possess greater strength than any, other variety. This is the article used in this preparation. Put up in 4 oz. bottles. Price 25 cents.

MCALLISTER'S

ALL-HEALING OINTMENT.

It is impossible to give to the public an adequate idea of the great success which has attended the administration of the All-Healing Ointwent for the past six months. It is perfectly astonishing to witness the effects and hear the praises bestowed on this medicine. No one could conceive that a single medicine possessed somuch wirtue, and had power to heal so many diseases. But sluce it is known that tens of thousands have been cured, our friends will begin to realize the truth of our remarks in a former advertisement, viz: that there would not be a single family in America who would live a day without possessing a box of McAllister's All-Healing Ointment restores perspiration in the system. By this means it opens those avenues through which nature carries off the impurities within, and thus relieves the body of diseases. It is thus that it cures Consumption, Fevers, Scrotolla, Enyspielas, Asthma, Salt Rheum, Sick Headache, Quinsy, Sore Throat, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Pains in the Chest, Side and Back, Dyspepsia, Poisons, Sore Breast, Deatness, Cutaneous Eruptions, Sore Eyes, Inflammation of the Bowers, Kidneysand Brain, Burns, Cuilblains, Piles, Woorms, Agues, Cold Feet, Liver Complaint, Ulcers, and all Fever Sores, and Inflammation of every kind.

"BE YE FRUITFUL AND MULTIPLY,"

Is a command that should be cheerfully obeyed by the children of men. Dr. Larzette's Juno Cordia, or Procreative Elixir, prescribed as an effectual restorative in cases of Debility, Impotency, or Barrenness, and all irregularities of nature. It is all that it professes to be, viz: Nature's Great Restorative, and remedy for those in the married state without offspring. It is a certain cure for Seminal Emissions, General Debility, Gleet, Weakness of the Genttal Organs, Nervous Affections, Leucorrhoea or Whites. As an invigorating medicine it is unequalled. Also, a certain renedy for Incipient Consumption, Indigestion, loss of Muscular Energy, Physical Lassitude, Female Weakness, Debility, &c. It is warranted to please the user in any of the above complaints, and is of priceless value to those without offspring.

Gaution Extra.—Find the name of Comstock & Brother on the Wrapper, and never buy it unless you find the above name; as it has been extensively connerfeited of late. Avoid the counterfeit as you would poison.

Exclusive Agent in this city for the Smle of Fisk's Patent Air. Tight Metallic Burial Cases. Fish's Patent Air. Tight Metallic Burial Cases. Fish's Bubscriber, having been appointed sole agent in Louisville for the above Burial Cases, would be leave to call the attention of the public to their great superiority in every respect to the common wooden, coffin now in use. For durability, elegance, style of finish, and indeed every other requisite, either of beauty or of usefulness, they are unrivaled, and where ver they have been introduced they have rapidly attained decided preference, to the almost total exclusion of every other Coffin. Their neat and classic form, their great convenience, and their many other sterling qualities, render them universally desirable; while their cost, being but little if any above that of the ordinary wooden Coffin, places them within the reach of all. Salfsfied of their peculiar merits, the subscriber is confident of their increased and extended sale, and, having been for several years engaged in the Undertaking business, he hopes by strict personal attention and complete knowledge of the business to merit and receive a liberal share of the public patronage. He has now and will continue to keep on hand a full supply of Eurial Cases, with an elegant Hearse constantly in attendance; and he has also made arrangements to supply Carriages when desired. All calls in the city or country promptly attended to any hour of the day or night. During the night and out of basiness hours the subscriber may be found at the residence of Mr. A.
